Qualitative Input

Narrative comments

- 4,105 responses
 - 3,667 from Web questionnaire
 - 208 submitted at public meetings
 - 204 via e-mail
 - 26 transcribed from voicemail messages

Overarching Themes

- Region needs more transit to respond to growth, existing congestion, rising gas prices
- 'Get something done'
 - Taking action now a pervasive theme
 - Less prevalent: voters should see light rail 'proof' (Link opening) before considering expansion vote
- Fuel costs spark urgency for action
 - 'Strike while the iron is hot'

Mode-specific Comments

- Most support light rail extension
 - Excitement about Link opening
 - Region needs rail to stay competitive
 - Fewer say light rail not right solution, prefer BRT
- Call for more Sounder, bus service
 - Parking concerns pervasive

Concerns Voiced

- Areas outside Seattle need more investment
 - Need more east-west connections
 - Don't want to transfer in Seattle
- Reservations about funding source
 - 'Regressive' sales tax, taxes already too high
